ATLANTA ATTORNEY CHRISTIAN TORGRIMSON RECEIVES PRESTIGIOUS COUNSELOR OF REAL ESTATE DESIGNATION

ATLANTA, June 11, 2018 - Atlanta-based law firm Pursley Friese Torgrimson announced today that managing partner Christian Torgrimson has been awarded the CRE® (Counselor of Real Estate) designation by The Counselors of Real Estate®, an international group of high profile real estate professionals who provide expert advisory services to clients on complex real property and land-related matters. The designation was voted and confirmed in May at the Counselors' 2018 Midyear Meetings in Chicago.

A highly experienced eminent domain attorney, Torgrimson helps clients navigate the complexities of a condemnation to obtain the just compensation guaranteed by the Constitution when the government condemns private property. She has litigated eminent domain proceedings, private property disputes and other real estate matters for nearly 19 years, representing a wide spectrum of property owners and interests. Torgrimson advocates for a variety of clients throughout Georgia including large and small businesses, mixed-use and shopping center developers and owners, corporations, hotel operators and owners, convenience store and gasoline company tenants, operators and owners, restaurant franchisors and franchisees, and individual homeowners.

Torgrimson is a respected national speaker on Georgia eminent domain law and frequently writes on condemnation issues for professional organizations, including the American Bar Association and American Law Institute. She earned a law degree from Emory University School of Law and a bachelor's degree cum laude from the University of South Carolina.

Membership in The Counselors of Real Estate is selective and is extended by invitation only, attesting to the practitioner's expertise and proven competence in his or her chosen area of real estate. Members receive the CRE credential in recognition of proven superior problem-solving ability. Once invited to membership, Counselors must adhere to a strict Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Practice. Counselors are recognized in the marketplace as having consistently demonstrated the highest levels of knowledge, experience, integrity, and judgment. Fewer than 1100 real estate professionals currently hold the CRE credential.

The Counselors of Real Estate, established in 1953 and headquartered in Chicago, Illinois, is an international professional organization whose members provide objective, reliable advice and counsel on matters affecting all forms of real property in the United States and abroad. Members include ranking representatives of real estate consulting, financial, legal and accounting firms as well as leaders of Wall Street, government and academia.
